

SAUDI ARABIA

DOMESTIC WORKER ANNUAL LEAVE - KNOW YOUR RIGHTS

Every domestic worker has legal rights. Know your annual leave entitlement and what to do if your employer does not grant your leave.

1. WHEN ARE YOU ELIGIBLE?

You are entitled to 30 days of annual leave after completing two (2) consecutive years of service with the same employer, provided your contract is renewed.

2. IS THE LEAVE PAID?

Yes. Your annual leave is fully paid. You are entitled to your full monthly salary during your leave period, as stated in your employment contract.

3. AIR TICKET

If you are returning to your home country for your annual leave after completing the required service period, your employer must provide a return air ticket as per the regulations and your contract.

4. WHAT IS YOUR LEGAL RIGHT?

You have the legal right to annual leave after completing the required service period. Your employer cannot deny your leave or reduce your salary.

5. WHAT IF YOUR EMPLOYER DOES NOT GRANT YOUR LEAVE?

If your employer refuses to give you your legal annual leave or does not follow the rules, you can file a complaint.

WHERE CAN YOU FILE A COMPLAINT?

- For domestic worker employment services and dispute support.
- Website: www.musaned.com.sa
- Call Center: 9200 00286

- To submit a complaint regarding violations of domestic worker rights.
- Website: www.hrsd.gov.sa
- Call Center: 19911

If the issue is not resolved, your case may be referred to the competent authorities for further action.

BEFORE FILING A COMPLAINT, KEEP COPIES OF:

Your employment contract

Salary payment records

Leave request messages or documents

Any communication with your employer regarding your leave

IMPORTANT TO REMEMBER

- Your rights are protected by Saudi regulations.
- No one can take away your legal leave or salary.
- If you are treated unfairly, seek help and report it.

KNOW YOUR RIGHTS. PROTECT YOURSELF. STAY INFORMED.

